PROVEN PERFORMANCE with method homes

Don't Just Take Our Word For It...

The award-winning, sustainably-minded and well-revered custom homebuilder, Method Homes, has been exclusively using ZomeTek bamboo composite decking on all their homes – with great success. Since 2009 and throughout eighty-plus homes – mostly in extreme mountain climates – the facts speak for themselves:

FIVE-PLUS years in extreme mountain weather

Over EIGHTY high-end, custom-built homes

Method homeowners LOVE the ZomeTek look and performance

ZomeTek has ZERO CLAIMS and ZERO ISSUES

"After we first installed ZomeTek, customer feedback was so positive that we now exclusively offer it on all of our projects. It's been a real home run for us because it stands the test of time in both overall looks and everyday durability."

Brian Abrahamson,
Co-Owner Method Homes

"Our homes must live up to the expectations of the most discerning clientele – so we need products that both look great and perform. From ease of installation and fantastic performance to its beautiful visual appeal and environmental aspects...Zometek has been a winner for us."

Mark Rylant,
Co-Owner Method Homes
